NV™

Designed in partnership with David Jenkins, the NV™ brings quality ergonomics to the executive office and conference room with a clever fusion of custom ergonomic craftsmanship and elegant style. The dramatic contours of the back envelop the user while offering support and comfort. Its unique split waterfall seat design allows flexibility for the user's legs, reducing seated pressure. Soy based foam and eco-friendly leather make the NV™ the chair of choice in today's eco-conscious environment and the envy of every office.
